—Gottfriede, Eveline Tanner, daughter of H. C. Tanner, Oakland avenue, died suddenly on Saturday, July 5th, of heart disease. Funeral services were held at three o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday, the 5th inst.

—The Nameless base ball club of Bloomfield played a game of base ball on Saturday last, on their grounds near Albert Morris' saw mill, with the Mutuals of Belleville. They were defeated by a score of 20 to 12. Good luck next time!

It is one of the most popular of New Jersey mountain resorts. The Forest House has accommodations for 300 guests, and is well patronized by people from Newark and the Oranges.

—Assistant Superintendent Frank J. Griffith, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, will have charge of the annual Water Gap excursion, which takes place on August 5th. Parties wishing to spend a day at that famous resort can do so on that day for $1.55 less than any other time. The excursion tickets will be on sale at the Bloomfield station for $2.00 each. Train leaves at 7:19 A. M.

—Thomas Leary, a slater employed by Thos. Reid, of this place, fell from the roof of a building on which he was working, on Wm. street, near Main street, East Orange, on Monday. He struck on some boards which lay across two saw-horses, and they, breaking in two under his weight, probably saved his life. The distance from the ground was about twenty-five feet. The only injuries he received was a bad sprain of the right arm and a break of the left arm. He was taken to the East Orange Dispensary, where he was attended by Dr. Walters, and taken home by Mr. Reid.

School Meeting.

The annual school meeting for the appropriation of money to pay current expenses was held at the Center School-house on Tuesday evening. The attendance was small. The business was however promptly transacted; $9,000 being voted for current expenses and $3,000 additional for payment upon the permanent debt of the District.

The annual report of the Clerk was presented and accepted by the meeting. It is a very full and accurate resume of the work of the year, nicely printed and bound by Mr. S. Morris Hulm, who has had charge of this work for several years past. It can be obtained at any of the stores of the village, or upon application to the Janitor of the School.

The new officers of Watchung Lodge are N. G., E. S. Crossman; V. G., Geo. Boxall; R. S., Wm. H. Romer; P. S., E. B. Crane; Treas., C. P. Sandford. Officers of National Lodge are N. G., Mahlon Spear; V. G., M. T. Baldwin; R. S., P. S., Owen B. Beach; Treas., R. W. Post.

An Appeal from the Reform Club.

As the time approaches for the Court to grant hotel and saloon licenses, we feel impelled by a sense of duty and encouraged by the prevailing sentiment in our community, to appeal in all kindness to those who have heretofore assisted the rumssellers in securing licenses. In view of the alarming extent to which the evil of intemperance has grown, the time has arrived when all good citizens should lend their influence to check its further increase.

May we not, therefore, have the assurance of your cooperation, by your refusal to sign any application for a license which may be presented to you?

THE REFORM CLUB.

Picnic at Little Falls.

Members of the congregation and Sunday School of the First Presbyterian Church held a social picnic at Little Falls on Wednesday. Cars were provided by the Montclair & Greenwood Lake Railway Company, and the excursionists left by the 9:20 train, returning at 5:30 in the evening. The morning was dark and lowering, and rain fell gently soon after leaving the station. The Cassandras prophesied a gloomy time, but were, no doubt, agreeably disappointed when the sun broke through the clouds and the falls were in view. The day was spent over the river in a large grove upon the north bank. The means of enjoyment were numerous: swinging, boating, eating, singing, walking, riding and spooning. The latter was done under a sun umbrella—commencing with nature, the girls call it. Lawn-tennis and the little backstair (5 cents a tennis) came in for a share of attention. Views of the falls were obtained from all sides, including the river, where boating was possible to the foot of the cataract. Straggling parties brought in large bunches of water-lilies, gathered at shallow points in the river or ponds near by.

Upon the whole, the little ones said the picnic was just splendid; their adults thought it a good deal of fun, and the old ladies had a very pleasant time. There was some cold lunch left for those who stayed at home.

Township Committee.

On Wednesday evening the Township Committee recognized the Bloomfield Fire Association, as the custodians of the Fire Department under the new law governing such an organization, by passing the resolution offered some time since, and which was discussed as such length at the last session of the Committee, by a strict party vote. Messrs. Carter and Corby voted against it, Messrs. Dailey and Dodd in favor of it; as it was a tie the Chairman cast his ballot in favor of the resolution, passing it. Another resolution appointing Mr. A. J. Marsh, Fire Marshal, with power to choose assistants to act in his absence, was passed by a unanimous vote.

The Police Committee were authorized to employ two officers instead of one for patrol duty on the corners and at the canal on Sundays. Mr. Dailey stated that he had been misinformed about the reported annoyance of ladies while passing the Watessing barber shop. Investigation by him showed that it had not occurred.

The Road Committee were instructed to lay a tile pipe from the low ground on Washington avenue, between the Centre and the Railroad, to the brook crossing the avenue, in order to dispose of the water that collects near Mr. Corby's during every shower. The same committee were also instructed to try the experiment of repairing the roads with trap rock, on the section between the Centre and Library Hall on Broad street. A four inch coat of stone about twenty feet wide will be laid, to cost about $500.

The Gas Committee recommended that gas lamps be placed on Canal and Orange streets; also Monroe place and Washington avenue. Mr. Baldwin stated that they would cost $25 per lamp, and that the Gas Company would not say that they were willing to lay mains on all the streets, especially Washington avenue, as they were not likely to get other consumers of gas there. The matter was referred to the Special Committee for further report at the next meeting. A discussion followed regarding the enormous price paid for gas by the committee.

Our German Citizens.

The contract for the building of the German Church Parsonage has been awarded to Mr. Christopher Myers. The following were the bids of the master builders who had figured on the Building Committee's plans, viz.:

Nathl H. Baldwin, $2,975
Walker & Brown, 2,835
W. H. Davis, 2,770
Oakes & Jacobus, 2,675
John Simonsen, 2,625
Christopher Myers, 2,495

Work will be begun immediately. The Building Committee of the German Church consists of Messrs. John G. Keyler, Conrad Bohr, Jacob Fornoff, Henry Menser and Charles L. Seibert.

Mr. Eric Daek, of Montclair, has been elected President of the Young People's Union of the German Presbyterian Church, of Bloomfield. This society intends, very shortly, to make an excursion to Iona Island, on the Hudson.

Mr. Wedel, one of the students of the Seminary, has commenced a private school for the summer months, and is getting along very nicely with it.

We are glad to notice that our townsman, Dr. Seibert, in his paper, Deutscher Volksfreund, comes out strongly in favor of Blaine and Logan. The Volksfreund is a German weekly, of large circulation, published in New York.

Mr. Julius A. Johnson and family have returned from Europe.

The pulpit of the German Church was occupied last Sunday by Rev. Dr. Seibert. Rev. Mr. Einslin supplied the pulpit of Rev. John Rudolph, in Elizabethport.

The Turner Society of Metz's Hall have lost five of the best performers on the pole, who were dissatisfied with the way the society has been run in the past.

The License Question.

Some time since an article appeared in the CITIZEN, stating that hereafter the names of those signing requests for saloon and tavern licenses would be published. It is to be hoped that this will not be forgotten, as it is important that all should know who are responsible for the liquor traffic in our village.

Too Soft.

Will the editors please take a walk through Beach street? The sidewalk on the south side needs investigating; in fact it is in very bad condition; too much Pompton gravel and too little clay.

PEDESTRIAN.

Justice Notes.

On Sunday morning officers Foster and Harvey brought before Justice Hagemann one Michael Graham, whom they both charged with assault and battery committed upon them. It appears that Foster held a capias against Graham, and while in the act of arresting him both he and Harvey were assaulted. Graham desired an examination on next Monday, the 21st, which was granted. Graham is well known here and in Newark.

On Tuesday evening Peter Shannon, of Belleville, was brought before Justice Hagemann charged by James Smith, bartender in John Erb's hotel, Newark, with stealing money from the back bar to the amount of $10 or more. He was committed to jail for hearing next Monday.

On Tuesday evening, Charles Hobbs and Matilda, his wife, were arraigned before Justice Hagemann, charged with cruelty to a cat owned by a German named Jacob Huber, of Thomas street. It appeared from the evidence that Huber owned a cat, which was in the habit of dining on Hobbs' chickens, and Hobbs determined to put a stop to the cat's practice by informing Huber of the various acts of larceny committed by his cat. Huber paid no attention to Hobbs' warning, although Huber swore he saw his cat at different times with chickens he did not know where his cat got them, and did not know they belonged to the Hobbs. One John Lotz, testified he saw Mrs. Hobbs have a string around the cat's neck, but no cruelty; although he heard "dot cat speak, it wanted to go home." One Jacob Kenderlein, swore he saw the cat, and it was a good thing for all concerned that the cat had departed this life, as the cat was a midnight robber. Mr. Huber himself testified the cat was worth to him $100, although he had paid 50 cents for it. There being no wicked or malicious act or intent shown on the part of the defendants, the Justice, after reviewing the evidence and explaining the law, discharged both defendants.

On Wednesday evening, an Italian, named Carlo Doe, residing at Brower's old mill, was arrested and brought before Justice Hagemann, charged by Rosanna McCallister with assault and battery; in default of bail, he was committed to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

BROKEN STONE

Establish the grade on Broad Street, and then repair it with instead of the present material used which is dredged from the bottom of a river, and is worn out every year.

If Broken Stone is good enough for repairing Bloomfield Avenue why is it not economy to use the same material on Broad and other streets where the heavy travel comes, especially as it costs but little more and will wear two or three times as long as the gravel now used.
